Teacher Comments

Listening	Reading	Writing	Speaking
Can maintain her good band score but has a short attention span lately, however, there are also signs of her willingness to study and improve.	She can figure out the keywords in the question, however she is having difficulty in understanding them and locating its synonyms in the passage. She is hardworking and often consult her dictionary to learn unfamiliar words.	She is actively participating in her classes. She is beginning to alter the structure when writing her introduction and using cohesive devices properly.	She gives her best every class activities and persistent to know unfamiliar words or sentences. She is very helpful to others especially when they don't understand a particular topic.
